

NASHVILLE, TN (Press Release) - September 26, 2008 - Allison Lynn is excited to announce the release of her new self-penned single, "Do You Wanna Be My Neighbor in Gloryland," to radio through Radioactive Airplay.

"Do You Wanna Be My Neighbor in Gloryland" is the highly anticipated follow-up radio release from Allison Lynn, and one of three songs written by Allison on her debut CD, Real Big Fan.

Allison officially launched the single at this year's National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY, with a single release party. The event was open to the public, and also attracted the attention of DJs from across the US and Canada. Allison shared, "This song celebrates inviting people to be our neighbors when we get to Heaven, so in addition to the regular festivities of our party, we also took prayer requests for neighbors and friends across the country and around the world."

"Do You Wanna Be My Neighbor in Gloryland" has been attracting excitement since Allison first recorded it last year. "This song is a ray of sunshine with Allison's vocal delivery being the starburst," remarks Real Big Fan producer Aaron Minick. "It's nice to hear something fresh and new for the gospel market."

When asked about her latest release, Allison commented, "It's been a thrill to sing this song in concerts and hear people singing along. I'm excited to get the song to radio, and I pray it will bless many hearts."

Allison Lynn Releases New Radio Single

Saturday, 27 September 2008 11:43

---

Radio stations interested in downloading "Do You Wanna Be My Neighbor in Gloryland" can visit <http://www.radioactiveairplay.com/members/891/>

For more information about Allison Lynn and Real Big Fan, please visit www.allisonlynn.com .