

StowTown Records' artist Beyond The Ashes is happy to share the news of the marriage of baritone singer, Casey Shepherd, to Lisa Di Virgilio.

The couple married last month in a beautiful ceremony in New York where they first met and fell in love.

And where did they meet? They met in New York. Casey saw Lisa, for the very first time there, on television where she was a TV reporter on the news! He went on to send her an email expressing how gorgeous she was. He never expected a reply but, low and behold, he got one. That reply led to a first date which went on to lead to a lifetime of love.

Casey expresses, "The moment I met Lisa, I knew she was the one. Our wedding day could not have been more perfect. We are looking forward to all that life will bring as we share this journey together. We are truly blessed!"

The couple have made their home Nashville, TN where they felt it was best to live, as Casey travels and sings fulltime with Beyond The Ashes.
