

StowTown Records' artist Beyond The Ashes is honored to have garnered a Dove nomination for Inspirational Song Of The Year.

The song, "When Love Whispers Your Name," written by veteran Dove winning songwriters, Joel Lindsey and Ernie Haase, is from the trio's debut StowTown Records release entitled Living In The Moment.

"It is overwhelming how God continues to open doors and opportunities for BTA. I feel very honored to represent Southern Gospel music at the Dove Awards once again. Thank you all for believing in our ministry," expresses Anthony Facello of Beyond The Ashes.

The Gospel Music Association's Dove Awards will take place on Tuesday, October 15th 2013, at 7:30pm CST. They will be held at Lipscomb University's Allen Arena in Nashville, TN.

For more information or to purchase tickets, visit www.doveawards.com.

To learn more about Beyond The Ashes, visit www.beyondtheashesonline.com. Like them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/beyondtheashes and follow them on Twitter at @beyondtheashes1.

To schedule the Dove nominated trio for your church service or concert event, contact the Adoration Agency (A division of Michael Davis And Associates) by visiting www.adorationagency.com or by calling Sophia Davis at 615-590-7453.

You can learn more about StowTown Records and their family of artists by visiting www.StowTownrecords.com.