

Multi-platinum recording artist Michael W. Smith has announced plans for the final leg to the successful "Worship Around The World" tour and has invited Jason Crabb, Christian Music's reigning Male Vocalist of the Year and Artist of the Year, to be his very special guest. The tour is slated to hit approximately 12 cities across the country, including Tulsa, OK; Longview, TX; Syracuse, NY; Bangor, ME; among others.

In the past year, Smith has toured to over a dozen countries including Brazil, Abu Dhabi, Baharain, Europe, Canada, Malasia, Singapore and will just land in the United States from Iceland as this final tour leg begins.

Worship as a corporate body continues to be the theme for this tour and attendees are in for a special evening as they experience the musical genius of Michael W. Smith and the soulful voice of Jason Crabb.

"I've known Jason Crabb for years," Smith says. "Everyone in the business knows he's an amazing singer - but what I love most about him is his heart. The genuine love and care he displays to every single person he comes in contact with is something we all can learn from. I can't wait to share the stage with him!"

"To share the stage with Michael W. Smith is going to be a very special thing for me," says Crabb. "One of the first times I heard Michael was during a period in my life when things weren't going so well. I found hope and encouragement in his music. Never in a million years did I imagine that one day I would share the stage with him - we're going to have a great time!"

During the evening both artists will perform separately, sharing music from their individual careers, then join together on stage for unforgettable powerhouse moments of music.
