

Exciting news is coming from THE Music City, Nashville, TN. This fall will usher in a new kind of variety show. It's the Music City Show, featuring top artists from Gospel music like Legacy Five, Greater Vision, The Blackwood Brothers, Comedians Tim Lovelace and Aaron Wilburn, as well as featured Bass soloist for the Gaither Homecoming concerts, Gene McDonald. The show will also feature special Guest hosts each week, along with the positive cowboy Jim Sheldon and Nashville's own Blue Jean Band.

You will get to know the featured artists in our special interview moments, and have fun with the hosts as they share funny stories you've never heard before.

All the music will be performed with a live band featured on the music city show. Join us at the barn for letters from near and far as it is a hilarious question and answer comedy segment. See the positive cowboy Jim Sheldon perform favorite classic country hymns.

The Music City Show - a new kind of live show from the heart of Nashville.

Watch the Music City Show this fall starting November 14th at 8pm on RFD TV. Here is a link to the advance streamer for the show: <http://youtu.be/k3CzCUwp1bw>

The show is produced by Scott Godsey for Godsey and Associates.
