

Award winning singer/songwriter Daryl Williams has signed an agreement with AG Publicity. Daryl has written over 1,100 songs with many of them huge hits in the Gospel music world.

Deon Unthank of AG Publicity said "Daryl is a personal friend whom I have known for thirteen years. I've watched him go through good times and bad times and can tell you that he lives what he writes about. I am thrilled to be able to send news of Daryl Williams around the world."

Williams has had such Gospel hits as: The Gaither Vocal Band - "Promises One By One" and "Singing With The Saints", the Cathedral Quartet - "Blessed By The Hand Of The Lord", the Greenes - "When God Has Another Plan" and "Jerusalem Coming Down", Jake Hess - "I Got Blessed", the Talleys - "Jesus Saves", "Typical Day", and "Surely", Gold City - "Nobody's There", the Collingsworth Family - "Just Another Rainy Day", Ivan Parker - "The Best Hallelujah In The House" and "Between Two Thieves", the Kingsmen Quartet - "Joy's Gonna Come In The Morning", the Speer Family - "Another Hallelujah Coming On", and of course any one who is anyone has recorded "Glory To God In The Highest" on their Christmas Album.

Daryl Williams sang with the Speer Family before forming his own group and he is announcing the reformation of the Daryl Williams Trio. Consisting of Daryl, Shannon Knight and Brent Mitchell, Daryl commented "I've never been more excited about forming a group than I have this one. With this array of talent there is no end to the styles and arrangements we can sing."
