

Harmony Road, a weekly Southern Gospel Television program is pleased to announce that TNN, The Nashville Network has added Montgomery, AL affiliate WBMM to its roster of stations beginning October 1, 2013. The addition of WBMM means that great Southern Gospel music videos will now be seen and heard in South Central Alabama in cities such as Montgomery, Prattville, Tuskegee, Greenville and Troy.

According to the website www.watchtnn.com : The Nashville Network (TNN) is pleased to welcome new affiliate WBMM – Montgomery-Selma, AL (DMA 118). WBMM, owned and operated by Alabama Telecasters, Inc./Bahakel Communications, will begin broadcasting TNN October 1 over-the-air on channel 22.2. Cable carriage information will be forthcoming.

Matt Winn, Executive Vice President of TNN Television, LLC says, “We are thrilled to welcome our first Bahakel Communications station, WBMM, to the TNN family.” Winn adds, “We believe our unique blend of classic and current country music and entertainment programming will be well received in Montgomery by viewers and advertisers.”

"We're extremely pleased to add The Nashville Network to our offering of stations here in Montgomery," said Jesse Grear, Vice President and General Manager of the Alabama News Network, which includes CBS8, ABC Montgomery, the CW Montgomery, MeTV, and now, TNN.

Roger Spears, Harmony Road producer states, “All of us at Harmony Road TV are excited about our continued relationship with TNN/The Nashville Network and their strong growth. The Montgomery market brings the program to an area that has a rich tradition in Southern Gospel music.” Spears continues, “We also look forward to more announcements soon regarding the growing reach of Harmony Road, which is currently available to tens of millions of homes across the country.”

Harmony Road can be found each week on TNN, The Nashville network on Sunday mornings at 8:00 Eastern. The program is also available through other broadcast and web outlets.
