

Dove Award-winning Difference Media artist Canton Junction will donate proceeds from their recording, "Back On My Feet Again," to The Dream Center, a multi-faceted urban ministry impacting the people of Los Angeles. The group's music video of the song will premiere on GodTube.com Thursday, November 7, and will be viewable at JHM.org and DreamCenter.org beginning November 8. Featured on Canton Junction's full-length CD and DVD, Show Me Your Way, "Back On My Feet Again" is currently available at iTunes.com.

"We wanted to use 'Back On My Feet Again' to draw attention to the great work of The Dream Center," said Pastor Matthew Hagee of Canton Junction. "The message of restoration and hope is what The Dream Center is working on 24 hours a day, seven days a week—helping one life at a time to get back on their feet again."

"This song has ministered to so many of our people to refuse to stay down and choose to embrace second chances," said Pastor Matthew Barnett, founder of The Dream Center. Established in 1994, The Dream Center is a volunteer driven organization that finds and fills the needs of over 50,000 individuals and families each month. The Center provides mobile hunger relief and medical programs, residential rehabilitation programs for teens and adults, a shelter for victims of human trafficking, transitional housing for homeless families, foster care intervention programs, job skills training, life skills counseling, basic education, Bible studies and more.
