

The SouthEastern Southern Gospel Music Conference (SESGMC), presented by Resting Place Music (RPM), is very excited to announce the addition of 17 new artists scheduled to perform at the 2014 SESGMC in Tifton, Ga at UGA Center, April 11-12, 2014!

Some of the nation's premiere talent like; Chronicle, Higher Hope, The Riders, The Drummond Family, The Bridgemans, Drew Zeringue, The Kings Royal Heirs Quartet, The Sounds of Joy, Samuel and Labreeska Atkinson Trio, Heart 2 Heart, Lindsay Huggins, 4 ONE Quartet. Rounding out the latest to come on board most recently are; Ray Scarbrough's Parable, Witness 4 Him, Great Day, Sharron Kay King and 2nd Generation.

The event was created as a major Southern Gospel Music "convention style" event for the southeast region of the country, but immediately has drawn nation attention, as the performing artist represent the states of Ohio, Michigan, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, and Virginia, WV, and Maryland

RPM President and SESGMC Executive Director, Ricky Atkinson states, "We've had an awesome first month of representing this event! With the list of performing artists growing each week, it's certainly going be a great event next April." Ricky adds, "We've also begun to have retail vendors sign up for a booth in the Exhibit Hall. It is certainly a great time now, if your business would like, to reserve a display booth and attend this 2 day southern gospel music event. To do so, feel free to contact us about discounted rates for local and area retail businesses!"

This will be the 3rd annual SESGMC taking place on April 11 and 12, 2014, and it's growing rapidly. We offer a sincere invitation to you to join us there.
