

Daywind Records is pleased to announce the addition of Tribute Quartet to its roster of artists. Tribute is no stranger to Southern Gospel Music fans. The group was formed in 2006 by two former members of the Wilburns, Gary Casto and Josh Singletary. Those two are now joined on stage by tenor singer Riley Harrison Clark and bass singer Anthony Davis. The group received the Singing News Fan Award for Horizon Group of the Year in 2008. Their hit song, "Good News from Jerusalem" was nominated for the Singing News Fan Awards' Song of the Year in 2013.

"Tribute Quartet is thrilled to be joining the Daywind family," shared Gary Casto. "At this season in our ministry, after just celebrating our seventh year together, we are excited about the opportunity to work with this award-winning team as we continue to make great music for years to come."

Added Josh Singletary, "It's exciting to watch an entity grow. Even more, a ministry. Tribute has seen a lot of growth over 7 years and each spurt has been a breath of fresh air. This is no exception. I am tickled to be a part of the Daywind family and anticipate a bright and productive future!"

The group has experienced some of its greatest success with its latest project, "Our Anthem." Three of the songs on the project – "Good News from Jerusalem," "Homesick Angel" and "God's Gonna Send a Revival" – have experienced considerable success on the Singing News Magazine Top-80 Chart. "Good News from Jerusalem" was a No. 1 song in August of 2013 and was nominated for Song of the Year.

"Tribute has rapidly ascended to prominence in the Southern Gospel industry, and they are showing no signs of slowing down," Daywind president Ed Leonard said. "We are excited to have the opportunity to work with such young, enthusiastic men and look forward to having the group as part of our growing roster of artists for a long time to come."

The group is picking songs for their inaugural Daywind release due out in 2014. For more information on Tribute Quartet, visit the group's web site at tributequartet.com. The group is booked by the Harper Agency.

Daywind Records is home to great artists such as Brian Free and Assurance, Greater Vision, Karen Peck & New River and Legacy Five. Daywind is distributed to retail through New Day Christian Distributors, iTunes, Select O Hits and all major digital outlets. For more information, visit www.daywindrecords.com.