

Lamp Music Group of Whitesburg, Ga is pleased to announce the signing of Timothy Tidwell.

Throughout Timothy's broad church music experience, God has shaped his vocal style and songwriting skills to complete a unique music ministry. Holding church staff positions from Florida to most recently Michigan, Tim is very comfortable sharing his own special Gospel message.

Lamp veteran producer Mike Pillow recently shared, "I knew when I first heard Timothy's music that he was something very different than anything in our industry! I can't wait to see what God's going to do with this project!"

Tracking for the upcoming Potter's Clay recording project will begin in October 2008 with a tentative release date in January 2009.

Timothy will be making his debut at the National Quartet Convention on a variety of events including Lamp Music's PRE-DIAMOND AWARD SHOW which will take place on Friday at 11am at the Executive Hotel (Canterbury Room) with a follow up performance at the Diamond Awards Show.

For more information about Timothy Tidwell: www.timothytidwell.com