

"Heaven's Headlines" is a brand new song and CD from The Keetons. At around 3:20 pm on Wednesday, September 10th during the National Quartet Convention, the song will be debuted by The Keetons, at the Angelic Talent Showcase held at the Executive Inn across from Freedom Hall.

The release celebration continues with a special launch of Heaven's News.com from the stage of the showcase! After the song has been performed by the Keetons for the first time, Dan Keeton will flip the switch on www.heavensnews.com. The site will simply contain inspirational stories of lives changed by Christ from all over the world, hosted in a forum setting.

Dan says, "I just believe, the headlines today are biased toward not telling good news. Heaven's News.com is simply a place to share what God is doing in the lives of people all over the world." If you'd like to submit a story before the official launch send it to -- news@heavensnews.com
