

Ft. Worth, TX (September 16, 2008) – Shannon Perry was honored to be a part of the Southern Gospel Music Association (SGMA) of Texas conference held recently in Irving, TX, featuring guest speakers Phil Cross, Wayne Haun, and Lou Hildreth.

Invited by industry leader and Gaither Homecoming Friend, Lou Hildreth, Perry experienced workshops on songwriting, promotions, and vocal and stage performance. "I always love learning how to be a better songwriter, musician and minister," said Perry. "Learning from Lou, Phil and Wayne at this conference was a great honor. I'm proud to call them my friends!"

Perry, whose current single, "Tell The Story," is making waves on Southern Gospel radio and is being promoted by Theresa Dillard of TS-Promotions, has been traveling and ministering at Women's Retreats across the country.

For more information on Shannon Perry, visit www.shannonperry.com . For more information on TS-Promotions, email

theresa@ts-promotions.com

. For more information on the Southern Gospel Music Association of Texas, visit www.sgmaoftx.org

.