

Hendersonville, TN (Sept. 17, 2008) – Daywind Records celebrated an exciting and rewarding evening with their incredible family of artists on Saturday, Sept. 13, 2008, in Louisville, KY. The Singing News held its annual Fan Awards during the National Quartet Convention in Freedom Hall on Saturday evening, and Daywind artists took home 13 awards in all.

Recipients included Jeff Stice (Triumphant Quartet) for Favorite Musician, Nick Trammell (Perrys) for Favorite Young Artist, Gerald Wolfe (Greater Vision) for Favorite Male Vocalist, Jeremy Lile (Brian Free and Assurance) for Horizon Individual, Michael Booth (Booth Brothers) for Favorite Tenor, Ronnie Booth (Booth Brothers) for Favorite Lead, Rodney Griffin (Greater Vision) for Favorite Baritone and Favorite Songwriter, Legacy Five for Favorite Male Quartet, and the Booth Brothers for Favorite Trio and Favorite Artist. The Booth Brothers also received Favorite Album (Carry On) and Favorite Song of the Year (“Look For Me”).

“We are honored to be associated with such wonderful and talented artists whose focus is on the ministry,” stated Daywind Records’ president, Ed Leonard. “Each artist is very appreciative of the support they receive from their fans. This support enables them to do what they are called to do by God. As fans sew into these ministries, God works through them to heal broken lives and encourage the faithful.”

The Singing News Fan Awards are voted upon each year by subscribers of the Singing News magazine. The awards are held each year at the National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY. For more information on the Singing News, visit www.singingnews.com . For more on the National Quartet Convention, visit www.natqc.com .

Daywind Records is based in Hendersonville, TN, and is distributed worldwide through New Day Christian Distributors. For more information on Daywind Records and their award-winning family of artists, visit www.daywindrecords.com .