

Hendersonville, TN (September 17, 2008) – Daywind Records' recording artist, the Booth Brothers had an unforgettable evening at the National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY on Saturday, September 13, as the group took home several of the major Singing News Fan Awards for the evening. This incredibly talented and wonderfully personable trio continues to take Gospel music by storm.

The group took home six fan awards in all. They included Favorite Tenor (Michael Booth), Favorite Lead (Ronnie Booth), Favorite Album (Carry On), Favorite Trio, and Favorite Artist, the top award given. The group also received the award for Song of the Year for "Look For Me," which they performed during the Fan Awards with just their voices and a piano.

2008 has been an amazing year for the Booth Brothers. Their new album, Room For More, was released last month. The first single from the recording, "Welcome To The Family," has already climbed the Singing News chart and will be at #1 in the October edition of the magazine. The Fan Awards were another overwhelming highlight to what is shaping up as the strongest year in Booth Brothers history.

Daywind Records president, Ed Leonard, expressed his joy for this deserving group. "The Booth Brothers have come into their own as one of the premier groups in Gospel music. Their family at Daywind is very proud of their accomplishments."

"We are so grateful for the love and support that has been shown to us. We feel truly blessed to know that our music has become part of peoples' lives and has helped them for eternity," shared Jim Brady of the Booth Brothers.
