The Rick Webb Family is a very talented family group in Southern Gospel Music! The group's latest project is titled "Committed To The Call" and this project has a lot of great songs on it that are sure to please fans of the group in every way and it will also likely gain the group a few more new fans!

"See What A Morning" gets the project off to a rousing start and the harmonies on this song are wonderful in every way! The great old hymn "I Will Sing Of My Redeemer" is next on the project and this beautiful arrangement will quickly become a favorite of everyone who hears it! Next on the project is a beautiful song titled "Satisfied." What an amazing song reminding us that Jesus Christ will satisfy every longing in our heart and in our life.

Another old hymn is next and I really enjoyed the Rick Webb Family's version of "The Unclouded Day." That has always been a favorite song of mine as it reminds us of how just amazing Heaven will be and this version of the song is top-notch in every way. "Let The Rocks Keep Silent" picks up the tempo and the Rick Webb Family seems to really excel at this type of song! I love this version of this song that tells the rocks to keep silent while we praise! The next song on the project is an incredible song that reminds us of the proper response to Christ when He calls us to do something and that is "Send Me." What a wonderful song and a great performance on this song. Next on the project is "All Rise." I love this song which is a call to worship the Holy God!

Next on the project is a song titled "If Not For The Old Rugged Cross." This song has an amazing message of just exactly where we would all be if Jesus had left our salvation up to us.

Thankfully, He did not. He did on that old rugged cross for our sins and made a way for our salvation. "Valley Of The Shadow" is a song I first heard a few years ago by the Old Time Gospel Hour Quartet. I loved the song then and this version is equally amazing! It is a song that talks about that day that we cross over from this life into the afterlife. It is a very good song and message. The final song on the project is "I'll Say Yes Lord" and what a great thought to end the project on. The song proclaims that we will say yes to the Will of the Lord. It is a slow melody but what an amazing and powerful message!

This project is a wonderful one. The Rick Webb Family has incredible harmony and this project showcases the vocal abilities of all of the group members as well as that amazing family harmony. The project had great songs, great production and outstanding vocal presentation and that all adds up to an amazing project! My favorite songs from the project are "Let The Rocks Keep Silent," "All Rise" and "I Will Sing Of My Redeemer." The Rick Webb Family has an amazing project here and I know once you hear it you will agree with me that they are one of the best groups out there today.
