Artist: Becky Miller
Project Title: Heart Songs
Label: Independent
Producers: Joey Wilson

Most days Becky Miller can be found singing with the Millers. However, Becky did step out and record a solo project that is nothing short of fantastic. Becky has a tremendous voice and these ten songs are all performed very well and will continuously bless you the more you listen to them.

The project begins with a song that took me back a bunch of years. Becky sings the old Hemphills classic titled "Good Things." I forgot how great that song is and I really enjoyed it! Next on the project is "He Sees What We Don't." What a great reminder that God sees things that we don't and we can trust Him as we navigate through this life down here. "He Will Come Through" is another wonderful song of encouragement that reminds us that God will always come through for us.

An up tempo song follows as Becky sings "In Everything Give Thanks." The songs speaks of giving God thanks no matter what we are facing. We can do that because God can turn around any circumstance in our life. Next on the project is a song I first heard by Karen Peck and New River. The song is titled "Broken Into Beautiful" and it has a beautiful message of how God can change us in miraculous ways and take our broken lives and make them beautiful. "Shine" is a song that was recently released to radio by Zane and Donna King and, in fact, Donna co-wrote the song. The song reminds us that we, as Christians, should shine in this world regardless of what we are facing or going through in life. I have always loved the song "Working For My Good." I first heard the song on a CD by the writer of the song, Patti Hawkins. I knew then it was going to be a great song and sure enough, other artists began to record it. I love the version that Becky has of this song and there is no doubt that God is working for our good!

The next song on this project is one that you just need to sit down and listen to. It is titled "Hear My Heart." I had never heard the song prior to this recording and what a beautiful song and message it is. If you are struggling in any way with anything, this song will encourage you. "Sky Full Of Angels" is a former number one song in Southern Gospel Music and has been recorded by numerous artists. Becky Miller is the latest to record it and her version is as good as any I have heard! The final song on the project is titled "Feels Like Home." It is another beautiful song with an amazing message.

This project is absolutely full of songs of encouragement. All of the songs are very strong lyrically and Becky delivers outstanding vocal performances on each and every song. My favorite songs from this project are "Hear My Heart," "Working For My Good" and "He Sees What We Don't." Becky Miller has an outstanding voice and this is a project that will appeal to everyone. The song selection, production and performances are all top notch and Becky has a winner here! I have been encouraged each time I listen to it and isn't that what Gospel Music should be about for the Christian?
