I am a very big fan of female soloists and I always enjoy hearing a new one. This was my very first time to hear Deena Ashley and I was very impressed with the songs and performances on this project.

"Rain" is a terrific start to this project and it is a very strong song. "He Did It All" is the second song on this project and what a wonderful message in this song. "Children Of Light" is another lyrically strong song and I enjoyed the message of how God gives each of His Children His eternal light.

"I Run To You" is a song with a touching message of running to Christ because He is always there to give us peace about any situation. "I Have A Father" is a great song about God as our Father and how His Power is unsurpassed. "It's Him" is an upbeat song that reminds us of exactly who God is! "Thoughts" is a unique song but the message is really a great one.

"Someone Lost" is a song with a terrific message and truth. "Praise You" is a wonderful song of worship and the song will bless you as you think of what God has done for you. The title song is the final song on the project and "Rose Colored Glasses" is a neat song and it reminds us that if we look through God's Eyes, we will see life through "Rose Colored Glasses."

Deena Ashley is a talented soloist and songwriter. She wrote all of the songs on this project and all of the songs are very good songs. I enjoyed all of the songs but my favorites are "Praise You," "Rose Colored Glasses" and "He Did It All." The project is a very good and I am sure that you will enjoy it!
