

Crimson Stream -- Anchor Of Hope

Written by Scott Evans

Saturday, 20 September 2008 09:01 -

Artist: Crimson Stream

Project Title: Anchor Of Hope

Label: Independent

Producer: Ray Calfo

Reviewed By: Scott Evans

Purchase this project at: www.crimsonstreamqt.com

Crimson Stream is a group that has become good friends of mine over the past couple of years. The group has a great quartet sound and they have been blessing people for a while now. Their latest project is another good one with some great songs.

"Boundless Love" has been a favorite song of mine since my first Cathedrals concert. It was great to hear it again! "He Saw It All" is a song made popular by the Booth Brothers a couple of years back. "Same Old Story" is a slow melody but is also a great song. "Heir To His Throne" is another slow melody and I love the message of it as it talks of us being an heir to His throne.

"Thanks To Calvary" is an old Gaither classic that you will enjoy. "Jesus Gave Me A Song" is a song that I was not familiar with but I sure liked it! It was a great song of the Song that Jesus will give us during our battles. "My Anchor Of Hope" is a wonderful song that the Kingdom Heirs sang a few years ago. Crimson Stream also does a fine job on the song. "Just Over Sonrise" is the next song on the project.

"There Is A River" is an old, powerful song. I enjoyed hearing the song again. "He's Real" is another familiar song in Southern Gospel Music. Crimson Stream does a fine job with the song. "I'm Gonna Tell Somebody" is a great way to end the project.

Crimson Stream is an exciting quartet and this project is another good one. The songs are mostly familiar but the group handles them with ease. I enjoy the project and I am sure that the project will bless you time and time again. My favorite songs from the project are "Jesus Gave Me A Song," "I'm Gonna Tell Somebody" and "Boundless Love." The entire project is a good one! For more information visit www.crimsonstreamqt.com

.