Let me say right up front that the Booth Brothers are one of my favorite groups. I have followed their ministry since the late 1990's and I always look forward to a new Booth Brothers project. This latest project is the Booth Brothers as I first remember them with incredible harmonies and great vocal abilities.

The first song is a great Mosie Lister song titled "At The Right Time." The song is a slow song that is awesome and you will enjoy. "All Creatures Of Our God And King" is an old hymn that you will probably find in your hymn book. The Booth Brothers have an incredible arrangement of this awesome song. "Tears Are A Language" reminds just what an awesome God we serve. He understands our tears and will help us deal with them. "Passing The Faith Along" is an old Gaither Vocal Band song and the Booth Brothers version is on that same level. It also reminds us to be out there each day telling someone about God and His life changing message!

"No More" is a very good song that really showcases the harmonies of the Booth Brothers. "Storm Now And Then" is an awesome song written by Mosie Lister. The song reminds us that it takes a storm now and then to remind us to depend on the Lord. "I'm Forgiven" is a song that I remember the Imperials singing and Jim Brady does a great job on the lead of this incredible song that I had all but forgotten about.

"Over The Moon" is a quartet standard. In fact Michael shared with me how their father sang this song when he sang with the Rebels Quartet.

I love the song and Michael does an outstanding job of singing it.

"Hallelujah Meeting" is an upbeat song that was written by Ronny Hinson. The Booth Brothers hit a home run with this one. "The Eyes Of Jesus" is a Joel Hemphill song reminding us that God is right there with us no matter how it seems. The project ends fittingly with another Mosie Lister song titled "Restore My Soul."

The Booth Brothers are one of the classiest groups around. Their harmony is unsurpassed by anyone and the guys are some of the nicest in the industry. This project is first class all the way. The song selection is great and Nick Bruno's production touch can be heard. My favorite songs were tough to choose but I finally decided on "I'm Forgiven," "At The Right Time" and "Storm Now And Then." I love this project and you will too when you get your copy!
