Whenever two quartets get together on stage, it seems as though magic happens. I remember a few years ago when the Kingsmen and Gold City got together and recorded four KingsGold projects! I still pull them out and listen to them pretty frequently! In the spirit of those recordings, the Gaither Vocal Band and the Signature Sound Quartet recently got together and recorded a project. They did a live DVD that will also be reviewed on this website. However, the CD version is a studio recording and features some great singing.

"Blow The Trumpet In Zion" is the next song and "I Then Shall Live," which is a Gloria Gaither song from the early 1980's is next.

"Holy Highway" is a song that is not that old and I enjoyed the song very much. The next song is a Mosie Lister classic titled "Goodbye World  Goodbye." I love this song and hundreds of groups have sung it over the year. This version, as you would expect, is a good one. The guys even throw in a little bit of "Just A Little While" to add to the fun. "Sitting At The Feet Of Jesus" is an incredible song and the harmonies are awesome on this song. The guys finish it up with a chorus titled "Holy Is The Name."

As I said, two male quartets recording together is always a great musical event. While the
