

Triumphant Quartet -- You Gotta Love It

Written by Scott Evans

Saturday, 20 September 2008 10:49 - Last Updated Tuesday, 16 July 2013 18:59

---

Artist: Triumphant Quartet

Project Title: You Gotta Love It

Label: Daywind

Producer: Steve W. Mauldin

Purchase this project at: www.junipersquare.com

The Triumphant Quartet is one of today's top quartets and their latest project just continues to prove that! I think I have every project that this group has ever recorded and it seems that each one just gets better and better. The latest, on the Daywind label, is titled "You Gotta Love It" and I do!

"Giver Creator Savior" is the first song and it's written by Rodney Griffin. That should be

Triumphant Quartet -- You Gotta Love It

Written by Scott Evans

Saturday, 20 September 2008 10:49 - Last Updated Tuesday, 16 July 2013 18:59

---

enough to tell you how good it is but just in case, it is an upbeat song that showcases the male quartet abilities of the Triumphant Quartet. "You Gotta Love It" is the title song of the project and this catchy tune will spend the rest of the day going through your head once you hear it! The song talks about how you gotta love what Jesus did for me! "Smack Dab In The Middle Of His Will" is a neat song written by Chris Binion and group member, Scott Inman. The reminds us that the best place is right in the middle of God's Will! "He Will Be" slows down the pace a bit as the song reminds us that God will be much more than we ever need.

"Let It Be Me" tells us a couple of things. First of all it is a brand new song written by Ronny Hinson. He is one of the great writers of all time and you will love this new effort. The other thing it confirms is that Eric Bennett is one of the best bass singers today! "The Great I Am Still Is" was co-written by Phil Cross and Twila LaBar and what a great effort. The song reminds us that the same God of yesterday is still alive and in charge of everything today! "The Old White Flag" almost has a country or bluegrass feel to it. It's a bit different style but I still enjoyed the Triumphant Quartet singing this style.

"He Rescued Me" is pure quartet singing. While enjoying that you can also be blessed by the message that God can and will rescue you from  whatever you face. "Delivered Again" features one of today's top tenor singers in David Sutton. The song is a slow pace with a good message of Christ delivering His Child from their past! The Triumphant Quartet went back and got a Dottie Rambo classic next! "The Holy Hills Of Heaven" is an awesome song you will enjoy the Triumphant Quartet's version. The pianist for the group is Jeff Stice and he wrote the final song on the project titled "I Know I'm Going Home." It's a great, upbeat song reminding us that we are heading Home to Heaven some day!

I have already written about the Triumphant Quartet's place amongst the finest quartets of today. I do honestly believe that they would rank in the top two or three male quartets traveling today. This project is wide variety of types of songs and styles but the group never wanders far

Triumphant Quartet -- You Gotta Love It

Written by Scott Evans

Saturday, 20 September 2008 10:49 - Last Updated Tuesday, 16 July 2013 18:59

---

from their Southern Gospel roots and they sing three or four traditional quartet songs that are unbeatable! My favorite songs from the project are "I Know I'm Going Home," "You Gotta Love It" and "The Great I Am Still Is." If you take one of today's top groups and couple them with one of today's top recording labels, you will find a winning project that you've gotta love! This is it! For more information visit www.triumphantquartet.com.