Before you think that I posted the wrong project graphic for this review, let me tell you that Tarheel State recently changed their name to Valor 3. The name may have changed but the great sound of this group has not changed a bit. This trio continues to sing powerful songs, many of them written by group members.

"Let The Worshippers Arise" is the first song on the project and it's a call to action for all worshippers of the Lord. "New Sound" is the second track on the project and it's a very good song of praise and worship. The next song is also a good one titled "Jesus Is All That I Need." The song reminds of that truth that is sometimes so easy to forget.

The next song is the project's title song with "Heart Of Worship." "Invitation" is a great song inviting the Lord to fill us with His Holy Spirit. "The Lord Is Our Warrior" is an upbeat song that I really enjoyed. The song reminds us of the Lord's great power. "I'm Free" is another wonderful song that reminds us of the freedom we can experience when Christ is in control of our life!

"Find In Me" slows the tempo down again and the song is a prayer that the Lord will find in us a heart of grace and a reflection of His Grace. "The Last Battle" is the next song and this slow ballad reminds us of the events leading up to Calvary and the wonderful events as Christ rose again. The final song on the project is "Until He Comes." The song does a good job of reminding us that Christ is coming back again and what a great chain of events that will be!

Valor 3 is a very talented male trio with a sound all their own. Their music is very enjoyable and the songs are powerful and will give the listeners a blessing. My favorite songs on the project are "The Lord Is Our Warrior," "Jesus Is All That I Need" and "I'm Free." The entire project is very good as Valor 3 sings these songs to perfection.
