Artist: Karen Peck and New River

Project Title: Pray Now

Label: Daywind

Producers: Unknown

Karen Pack and New River have been producing quality music for several years. Their latest effort is simply another project of high quality music that is sure to make all of their fans very happy!

The project begins with a lively song titled "Calling." The message is a good one about Jesus calling the sinner to be saved! I love the song and really enjoy the performance from Karen Peck and New River on this one. The title song of the project is next. "Pray Now" is a fantastic song that reminds us to pray no matter what is going on in your life because there is strength in His Name. "Hallelujah For The Cross" is the next song and this upbeat song is a celebration of the Cross of Christ and the souls that have been saved by it. The next song on the project is titled "Love With All Your Heart." The song has a wonderful message of sharing the love in our heart with others.

"I Am Blessed" is next up on the project and this song serves to remind us that we are blessed no matter what or where God is leading us. It is a great message and a beautifully crafted song. The tempo picks up with the upbeat "I'm Not Letting Go." It proclaims that no matter what comes our way we will not let go and we will continue to hold on to Jesus! "I Choose Christ" is a song that proclaims that we will choose Christ even when things around us say to give up. It is a great message in the song.

The next song on the project is a beautiful, slow ballad. The song is titled "Peace That Covers All The Pain." What a wonderful sentiment for a song as we think about how God, and only God, can give that peace that does cover all of our pain. "Redemptions Holy Lamb" is the next song on the project and it is another good song on this project. The next song on the project is an old song that is a very popular song in Southern Gospel Music. However, Karen Peck and New River have a beautiful arrangement and performance of "Lord Send Your Angels." The final song on the project is titled "A Life That's Good." The song holds a good message in it and is good ending to the project.

As I said, Karen Peck and New River have been producing good, quality music for many years now. The production on this project is typical, good stuff from Daywind. The song selection is strong and the vocal presentations of the songs are what we have come to expect from Karen Peck and New River. My favorite songs from this project are "Calling," "I'm Not Letting Go" and "I Choose Christ." If you are a Karen Peck and New River fan, this project will become a quick favorite for you. If you are not familiar with this group, this project would be a great introduction to this very talented mixed trio.
